"approved welfare officer" means a person who is appointed by the Director under section 3 (4) to carry out any investigation, assessment, supervision, consultation or evaluation in relation to any child or young person or the parent, guardian or family members thereof for the purpose of determining the welfare and state of development of such child or young person or for any other purpose under this Act;

"child" means a person who is below the age of 14 years;

"development" means physical, intellectual, emotional, social or behavioural development;

"Director" means the Director of Social Welfare appointed under section 3 (1) and, in relation to any provision in this Act in which the word is used, includes any public officer or other person who is appointed or authorised by the Director under section 3 (3) to perform any of the duties or exercise any of the powers of the Director under that provision;

"fit person" means a person whom the court or the protector, having regard to the character of the person, thinks competent to provide care, protection and supervision of a child or young person;

"guardian", in relation to a child or young person, includes any person who, in the opinion of the court having cognizance of any case in relation to the child or young person, or in which the child or young person is concerned, has for the time being the charge of, or control over, the child or young person;

"health" means physical or mental health;

"ill-treatment", in relation to a child or young person, has the meaning assigned to it in section 5;

"juvenile" means a male or female person who is 7 years of age or above and below the age of 16 years;

"manager" includes a director, manager and superintendent or other person having the management or control of any approved school, approved home, remand home, place of detention or place of safety;

"place of detention" means a place provided or appointed by the Minister as a place of detention under section 55 (1);

"place of safety" means any place or institution appointed or declared to be a place of safety under section 27 or any other suitable place the occupier of which is willing temporarily to receive a child or young person;

"protector" means the Director and includes any public officer or other person who is appointed or authorised by the Director under section 3 (3) to exercise the powers and perform the duties of a protector under this Act;

"registered medical practitioner" means a medical practitioner registered under the Medical Registration Act (Cap. 174), and includes a dentist registered under the Dentists Act (Cap. 76);

"relevant offence" means —

(a) any offence under Part II;

(b) any offence under Chapter XVI of the Penal Code (Cap. 224); or

(c) any offence involving the causing of bodily injury to a child or young person;

"remand home" means any home or institution or part thereof provided or appointed by the Minister as a remand home under section 53 for the detention of juveniles sent there under the provisions of this Act;

"visitor" means a person appointed to be a member of a board of visitors under section 67;

"young person" means a person who is 14 years of age or above and below the age of 16 years.

[20/2001]

Appointment of Director of Social Welfare and other officers

3. —(1) The Minister may, by notification in the Gazette, appoint an officer to be the Director of Social Welfare.

[20/2001]

(2) The Director shall be responsible for the administration and enforcement of this Act, subject to the general or special directions of the Minister.

[20/2001]

(3) The Director may —

(a) appoint any public officer; or

(b) with the approval of the Minister, in writing authorise any other person, to perform any of the duties or exercise any of the powers of the Director or a protector under this Act subject to such conditions and limitations as may be specified by the Director. [20/2001]

(4) The Director may appoint any suitably qualified person as an approved welfare officer to carry out any investigation, assessment, supervision, consultation or evaluation in relation to any child or young person or the parent, guardian or family members thereof for the purpose of determining the welfare and state of development of such child or young person or for any other purpose under this Act.

[20/2001]

(5) The Director and any public officer or other person appointed or authorised by him under subsection (3) and any approved welfare officer shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of the Penal Code (Cap. 224).

PART II

PROTECTION OF CHILDREN AND YOUNG PERSONS

WELFARE

When child or young person in need of care and protection

4. For the purposes of this Act, a child or young person is in need of care or protection if

- (a) the child or young person has no parent or guardian;
- (b) the child or young person has been abandoned by his parent or guardian and despite reasonable inquiries the parent or guardian cannot be found, and no other suitable person is willing and able to exercise care or guardianship in respect of the child or young person;
- (c) the parent or guardian of the child or young person is unfit or unable or has neglected to exercise proper supervision and control over the child or young person, and the child or young person is falling into bad association, or is exposed to moral danger, or is beyond control;
- (d) the child or young person has been, is being or is at risk of being ill-treated —
  - (i) by his parent or guardian; or
  - (ii) by any other person, and his parent or guardian, although knowing of such ill-treatment or risk, has not protected or is unlikely or unwilling to protect the child or young person from such ill-treatment;
- (e) the child or young person needs to be examined, investigated or treated for the purpose of restoring or preserving his health or development and his parent or guardian neglects or refuses to have him so examined, investigated or treated;
- (f) the child or young person behaves in a manner that is, or is likely to be, harmful to himself or to any person and —
  - (i) his parent or guardian is unable or unwilling to take necessary measures to remedy the situation; or
  - (ii) the remedial measures taken by the parent or guardian fail;

- (g) there is such a serious and persistent conflict between the child or young person and his parent or guardian, or between his parents or guardians, that family relationships are seriously disrupted, thereby causing the child or young person emotional injury;
- (h) the child or young person —
  - (i) is a person in respect of whom a relevant offence has been or is believed to have been committed; or
  - (ii) is a member of the same household as another child or young person in respect of whom a relevant offence has been or is believed to have been committed, and the child or young person appears to be in danger of a similar offence being committed against him, and either the person who committed or is believed to have committed the offence or who has been convicted of the offence is the parent or guardian of the child or young person or a member of the same household as the child or young person, or the parent or guardian of the child or young person is unable, unlikely or unwilling to protect the child or young person from such offence; or
  - (i) the child or young person is found to be —
    - (i) destitute or wandering without any settled place of abode and without visible means of subsistence;
    - (ii) begging or receiving alms (whether or not there is any pretence of singing, playing, performing or offering anything for sale) or loitering for the purpose of so begging or receiving alms;
    - (iii) engaged in carrying out illegal lotteries, illegal hawking, gambling or other undesirable activities; or
    - (iv) using or inhaling any intoxicating substance (as defined in the Intoxicating Substances Act (Cap. 146A)) for the purpose of inducing or causing in himself a state of intoxication.

Ill-treatment of child or young person

5. —(1) A person shall be guilty of an offence if, being a person who has the custody, charge or care of a child or young person, he ill-treats the child or young person or causes, procures or knowingly permits the child or young person to be ill-treated by any other person.

[20/2001]

- (2) For the purposes of this Act, a person ill-treats a child or young person if that person, being a person who has the custody, charge or care of the child or young person —
  - (a) subjects the child or young person to physical or sexual abuse;
  - (b) wilfully or unreasonably does, or causes the child or young person to do, any act which endangers or is likely to endanger the safety of the child or young person or which causes or is likely to cause the child or young person —
    - (i) any unnecessary physical pain, suffering or injury;
    - (ii) any emotional injury; or
    - (iii) any injury to his health or development; or
  - (c) wilfully or unreasonably neglects, abandons or exposes the child or young person with full intention of abandoning the child or young person or in circumstances that are likely to endanger the safety of the child or young person or to cause the child or young person —
    - (i) any unnecessary physical pain, suffering or injury;
    - (ii) any emotional injury; or
    - (iii) any injury to his health or development.

[20/2001]

(3) For the purpose of subsection (2) (c), the parent or guardian of a child or young person shall be deemed to have neglected the child or young person in a manner likely to cause him physical pain, suffering or injury or emotional injury or injury to his health or development if the parent or guardian wilfully or unreasonably neglects to provide adequate food, clothing, medical aid, lodging, care or other necessities of life for the child or young person.

[20/2001]

(4) A person may be convicted of an offence under this section notwithstanding —
(a) that any actual suffering or injury on the part of the child or young person or the likelihood of any suffering or injury on the part of the child or young person was obviated by the action of another person; or
(b) the death of the child or young person in respect of whom the offence is committed.

[20/2001]

(5) Subject to subsection (6), any person who is guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable on conviction —

(a) in the case where death is caused to the child or young person, to a fine not exceeding $20,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 7 years or to both; and
(b) in any other case, to a fine not exceeding $4,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 4 years or to both.

[20/2001]

(6) The court may, in lieu of or in addition to any punishment specified in subsection (5), order the person guilty of an offence under this section to execute a bond, with or without sureties, as the court may determine, to be of good behaviour for such period as the court thinks fit, and may include in such bond a condition requiring such person to undergo such counselling, psychotherapy or other programme as may be specified therein.

[20/2001]

(7) If a person who is ordered to execute a bond of good behaviour under subsection (6) fails to comply with any of the conditions of such bond, he shall —
(a) if such bond is in lieu of a penalty under subsection (5), be liable to the penalty provided for in that subsection; or
(b) if such bond is in addition to a penalty under subsection (5), be liable to a further fine not exceeding $20,000 or to a further term of imprisonment not exceeding 7 years or to both.

Contribution to delinquency of child or young person

6. —(1) Any person who causes or procures any child or young person or, having the custody, charge or care of a child or young person, allows that child or young person to be in any street, premises or place for the purpose of —

(a) begging or receiving alms, or of inducing the giving of alms, whether or not there is any pretence of singing, playing, performing or offering anything for sale; or
(b) carrying out of illegal hawking, illegal lotteries, gambling or other illegal activities or activities detrimental to the health or welfare of the child, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

(2) If a person having the custody, charge or care of a child or young person is charged with an offence under this section and it is proved that the child or young person was in any street, premises or place for any such purpose and that the person charged allowed the child or young person to be in the street, premises or place, he shall be presumed to have allowed him to be in the street, premises or place for that purpose unless the contrary is proved.

Sexual exploitation of child or young person

7. Any person who, in public or private, commits or abets the commission of or procures or attempts to procure the commission by any person of any obscene or indecent act with any child or young person shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to both and, in the case of a second or subsequent conviction, to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 4 years or to both.

Protector's power to obtain information

8. —(1) Where a protector has reason to believe that any person can furnish any information regarding the commission of any relevant offence in respect of a child or young person, the protector may, by order in writing —

(a) require that person to furnish such information to the protector in writing within such time as may be specified by the protector; or

(b) require that person to appear before and furnish such information to the protector at such time and place as may be specified by the protector.

[20/2001]

(2) The person referred to in subsection (1) shall be bound, as the case may be, to furnish the required information in writing or to attend before the protector and answer truthfully and to the best of his ability any question concerning the offence.

[7]

Power to remove child or young person to place of safety, etc.

9. —(1) Where the Director, a protector or a police officer not below the rank of sergeant is satisfied on reasonable grounds that a child or young person is in need of care or protection, the Director, protector or police officer may —

(a) without warrant and with such assistance and by such force as is necessary, by day or by night enter any premises in which the child or young person is to be found and —

(i) remove the child or young person and commit him to a place of safety until he can be brought before a Juvenile Court to be dealt with under section 49; or

(ii) remove the child or young person and, before committing him to a place of safety under sub-paragraph (i), present the child or young person before a registered medical practitioner or an approved welfare officer for an assessment or for any medical or other treatment as may appear to be necessary; or

(b) by notice in writing order the parent or guardian of the child or young person to —

(i) produce the child or young person before the Director, protector or police officer at a specified time and place; or

(ii) produce the child or young person before a registered medical practitioner or an approved welfare officer for an assessment or for any medical or other treatment as may be necessary, following which the Director, protector or police officer may, if he thinks necessary, remove the child or young person and commit him to a place of safety until he can be brought before a Juvenile Court to be dealt with under section 49.

[20/2001]

(2) A registered medical practitioner to whom a child or young person is brought under subsection (1) (a) (ii) or (b) (ii) —

(a) shall conduct the requisite assessment of the child or young person and report his assessment to the Director, protector or police officer, as the case may be; and

(b) may, with the consent of the parent or guardian of the child or young person or, if such consent cannot be obtained or if there is immediate risk to the health of the child or young person, with the authorisation of the Director, protector or police officer —

(i) administer or cause to be administered to the child or young person such procedures and tests as may be necessary to diagnose the condition of the child or young person; and

(ii) provide or cause to be provided to the child or young person such treatment (including any surgical treatment) as he considers necessary as a result of his assessment or diagnosis.

[20/2001]

(3) If the registered medical practitioner or approved welfare officer conducting the assessment of the child or young person under this section believes on reasonable grounds that the child or young person is suffering from any physical or emotional injury or any injury to his health or development as a result of being ill-treated, the registered medical practitioner or approved welfare officer shall immediately notify the Director, protector or police officer, as the case may be, and the provisions of section 88 shall apply to a registered medical practitioner or an approved welfare officer who makes a notification under this subsection.

[20/2001]

(4) If the registered medical practitioner conducting the assessment of the child or young person under this section is of the opinion that the hospitalization of the child or young person is necessary for the purpose of treating the child or young person, the Director, protector or police officer may authorise the hospitalization of the child or young person.

[20/2001]

(5) Subject to subsection (6), every child or young person who is removed by the Director, a protector or a police officer under this section shall, unless he is sooner returned to the custody of his parent or guardian, be brought before a Juvenile Court within 3 working days of his being so removed in order that he may be dealt with under section 49.

[20/2001]

(6) If for any reason it is not possible for the child or young person to be brought before a Juvenile Court within the time specified in subsection (5) —

(a) the Director, protector or police officer (as the case may be) shall, within 3 working days of the removal of the child or young person, inform the Juvenile Court of the removal and the reason for which it is not possible to comply with subsection (5); and

(b) the Juvenile Court may make such order as the circumstances may admit and require in relation to the custody, charge and care of the child or young person until such time as the child or young person may be brought before the Juvenile Court.

[20/2001]

(7) In this section, “assessment” means an assessment to determine the state of the health or development of the child or young person and whether the child or young person has been subjected to any ill-treatment.

[20/2001]

Warrant to search for or remove child or young person

10. —(1) If a Magistrate's Court, upon receiving any information or complaint, has reason to believe that a relevant offence has been or is being committed in respect of a child or young person, the Court may issue a warrant authorising any police officer named therein to search for the child or young person, if necessary, and remove the child or young person and commit him to a place of safety until he can be brought before a Juvenile Court to be dealt with under section 49.

[20/2001]

(2) A warrant issued by a Magistrate's Court under this section may authorise the police officer named therein, before committing the child or young person concerned to a place of safety, to present the child or young person before a registered medical practitioner or an approved welfare officer for an assessment or for any medical or other treatment as may appear to be necessary.

[20/2001]

(3) Section 9 (2) to (7) shall apply, with the necessary modifications, in the case where a child or young person is removed under this section as they apply in the case where a child or young person is removed under that section.

[20/2001]

(4) A Magistrate's Court issuing a warrant under this section may, by the same warrant, cause any person accused of any offence in respect of the child or young person to be apprehended and brought before the Court and proceedings to be taken against that person according to law.

(5) Any police officer authorised by warrant under this section to search for any child or young person or to remove any child or young person, with or without search, may enter, by the use of force if necessary, any house, building or other place specified in the warrant and may remove the child or young person therefrom.

(6) Every warrant issued under this section —

(a) shall be addressed to and executed by a police officer who shall be accompanied by the person laying the information, if that person so desires, unless the Magistrate's Court by which the warrant is issued otherwise directs; and

(b) may, if the Court by which the warrant is issued so directs, also be accompanied by a registered medical practitioner appointed by the Director for the purpose.

[20/2001]

(7) It shall not be necessary in any information or warrant under this section to name the child or young person, but, in such case, the child or young person shall be described as particularly as the knowledge of the informant or the Magistrate's Court permits.

Restrictions on children and young persons taking part in public entertainment

11. —(1) No child or young person shall take part in any public entertainment —

(a) which is of an immoral nature;

(b) which is dangerous to life or prejudicial to the health, physical fitness and kind treatment of the child or young person; or

(c) without the consent of his parent or guardian.

(2) Any person who causes or procures such a child or young person, or being his parent or guardian allows him, to take part in any public entertainment in contravention of subsection

(1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

(3) If the person convicted under subsection (2) is the holder of a licence under the Public Entertainments and Meetings Act (Cap. 257), the court may also order the cancellation of the licence or its suspension for such period as the court may think fit.

(4) In this section —

"entertainment" includes an exhibition or performance;

"public entertainment" means an entertainment to which the public or any section of the public is admitted or in connection with which a charge, whether for admission or otherwise, is made.

Trafficking in Children

Unlawful transfer of possession, custody or control of child

12. —(1) Every person who takes any part in any transaction the object or one of the objects of which is to transfer or confer, wholly or partly, temporarily or permanently, the possession, custody or control of a child for any valuable consideration shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 4 years.

(2) Every person who, without lawful authority or excuse harbours or has in his possession, custody or control any child with respect to whom the temporary or permanent possession, custody or control has been transferred or conferred for valuable consideration by any other person within or outside Singapore shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 4 years.

(3) It shall be a defence in any prosecution under this section to prove that the transfer took place in contemplation of or pursuant to a bona fide marriage or adoption and that at least one of the natural parents of the child or the legal guardian was a consenting party to the marriage or to the adoption by the adopting party, and had expressly consented to the marriage or adoption.

(4) In this section, "legal guardian", in relation to a child or young person, means a person lawfully appointed by deed or will or by the order of a competent court to be the guardian of that child or young person.

Importation of child by false pretences

13. Any person who, by or under any false pretence, false representations or fraudulent or deceitful means made or used either within or outside Singapore, brings or assists in bringing any child into Singapore shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 4 years or to both.

Power to examine children and persons in charge of them

14. —(1) A protector or any person authorised in that behalf by a protector in writing may require any child and any person who may appear to have the custody or control of the child to appear before the protector at any reasonable time and at any convenient place.

(2) The protector may examine the child as to his reasons for entering or being in Singapore and may examine the person respecting the child, and the child and that person shall be legally bound to answer such questions truthfully to the best of their ability.

Consent to marriage

15. No female below the age of 18 years who is or has been detained or in respect of whom a bond or security has been taken under the provisions of this Act shall contract any form of marriage without the previous consent in writing of a protector.

Power of protector to require security

16. If a protector has reasonable cause to believe that any child or young person —

- (a) has been brought into Singapore either after having been transferred for valuable consideration or by fraud, misrepresentation or any false pretence;
- (b) has been transferred to the custody or control of any person for valuable consideration either within or outside Singapore; or
- (c) is being detained against his will by some person other than his parents or lawful guardian, he may either —
  - (i) order any person in whose custody or under whose control the child or young person appears to be —
    - (A) to furnish him with copies of the photographs of the child or young person and the photographs of that person; and
    - (B) to furnish security to his satisfaction that the child or young person will not leave Singapore without the previous consent in writing of the protector, and that the child or young person will be produced before the protector whenever he requires it; or
  - (ii) in the first instance, or if default be made in complying with any order made under subparagraph (i), order that the child or young person be taken out of the custody of the person in whose care, custody or control the child or young person is and commit the child or young person to a place of safety or, on such security and on such conditions as the protector may require, to the custody of a relative or other fit person until the child or young person attains the age of 18 years or for any shorter period.

Inspection

17. —(1) A protector or any officer generally or specially authorised in that behalf in writing by a protector may at any time visit and inspect the place where any child or young person in respect of whom security has been furnished under section 16 lives or is believed to live or to be.

[20/2001]

(2) The protector or any such officer may inquire into the condition and circumstances of the child or young person and for the purposes of the inquiry, the protector or such officer may require any person to answer any question he may think proper to ask and that person shall be legally bound to answer such questions truthfully to the best of his ability.

[20/2001]

(3) Any person who obstructs or hinders or attempts to obstruct or hinder a protector or any such officer in the exercise of the powers conferred by this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

Powers of arrest

18. A protector may, during or after any inquiry referred to in section 8, 14 or 17, arrest or cause to be arrested any person reasonably believed to have committed an offence under section 5, 6, 7, 11, 12 or 13 and seize and detain any article or document which he may have reason to believe relates to the offence.

General

Powers of search

19. —(1) A protector or any officer generally or specially authorised in that behalf in writing by a protector may enter and, for that purpose, use such force as may be reasonably necessary, and search any vessel, house, building, land, enclosure or other place where he has reasonable cause to suspect that an offence under this Act has been or is being committed.

(2) Any person who obstructs or hinders or attempts to obstruct a protector or any such officer in the exercise of the powers conferred by this section shall be guilty of an offence.

When court may take cognizance of offence

20. No court shall take cognizance of any offence punishable under this Act except with the written sanction of the Public Prosecutor or a Deputy Public Prosecutor or upon a complaint made by —

- (a) a protector;
- (b) a Justice of the Peace;
- (c) a police officer not below the rank of sergeant; or
- (d) any other person authorised in writing by the Minister or by a protector, either by name or office, to make complaint of any offence under this Act.

Court may determine and declare age of child or young person

21. —(1) Where, in any proceedings under this Act, a person is alleged to be a child or young person, the court may, after making such inquiry as it thinks fit as to the age of that person, determine and declare his age.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, the age declared by the court under subsection (1) shall be deemed to be the true age of that person, unless the contrary is proved, in the same or any subsequent proceedings brought in relation to that person.

(3) Where a person is charged with an offence under this Act in respect of a person apparently under a specified age, it shall be a defence to prove that the person was actually of, or above, that age.

Offences and penalties

22. Any person who —

- (a) refuses to answer, to the best of his knowledge and belief, any question which he is legally bound to answer and which is asked of him by any officer appointed or authorised under this Act;
- (b) makes, signs or delivers or causes to be made, signed or delivered any wilfully false or incorrect notification, report or statement;
- (c) refuses to allow an officer appointed or authorised under this Act such entry or access to any house, building, land, enclosure, vessel or other place as he is required by this Act to allow; or
- (d) contravenes any order made by a protector under this Act, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

Certificate of protector to be evidence

23. A certificate purporting to be under the hand of a protector as to any entry in a register or any other record or as to any matter or thing which he is authorised by this Act to make or to do shall be prima facie evidence of the entry having been made and of the contents thereof and of the matter or thing having been done or not done.

Maintenance of child or young person when committed to care of any person

24. —(1) Where under this Act a child or young person is committed to the care of any person —

(a) that person shall, while the order of committal is in force, have the like control over the child or young person as if he were the parent of the child or young person and shall be responsible for the maintenance of the child or young person; and

(b) the child or young person shall continue in the care of that person notwithstanding that he is claimed by his parent or guardian or any other person.

[20/2001]

(2) Any person who —

(a) without lawful authority removes a child or young person from the custody of the person to whose care the child or young person has been committed under this Act;

(b) knowingly assists or induces, directly or indirectly, a child or young person to escape from the person to whose care he has been committed under this Act; or

(c) knowingly —

(i) harbours or conceals a child or young person who has escaped from the person to whose care he has been committed under this Act;

(ii) prevents such child or young person from returning to the person to whose care he has been committed under this Act; or

(iii) assists any other person in doing any of the acts mentioned in sub-paragraphs (i) and (ii), shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

[20/2001]

(3) For the purposes of this section, a child or young person who, under this Act, is committed or sent to an approved school, an approved home, a remand home, a place of detention or a place of safety shall be deemed to have been committed to the care of the manager of the approved school, approved home, remand home, place of detention or place of safety, as the case may be.

Contribution orders

25. —(1) Where an order has been made by a protector under section 16 committing a child or young person to a place of safety or to the custody of a relative or other fit person, the protector may at the time of or subsequent to the making of such order make a further order (referred to in this section as a protector's contribution order) requiring the parent or guardian or the person having the custody of the child or young person at the time of the making of the order to contribute such weekly or monthly sum in respect of the maintenance of the child or young person as the protector having regard to his means thinks fit.

[20/2001]

(2) It shall be the duty of the parent or guardian or other person to comply with the terms of a protector's contribution order.

(3) No protector's contribution order shall be made without giving the person ordered to make a contribution an opportunity to be heard.

(4) A protector's contribution order shall remain in force for so long as the committal order in respect of the child or young person is in force except that such order —

(a) may be varied, revoked or suspended by the protector; and

(b) shall not be so varied as to increase any contribution payable thereunder without giving the person making the contribution an opportunity to be heard.

[20/2001]

(5) If any person wilfully neglects to comply with a protector's contribution order made under this section, a court may, for every breach of the order, by warrant direct the amount due to be levied in the manner by law provided for levying fines imposed by Magistrate's Court, or may sentence the person to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month for each month's contribution remaining unpaid.

Powers of District Court

26. Any power exercisable by a Magistrate's Court under this Part may also be exercised by a District Court.

Provision of places of safety

27. The Minister may, by notification in the Gazette —

(a) appoint any place or institution to be a place of safety under this Act; and

(b) declare any orphanage, hospital, home, institution or other place to be a place of safety for the purposes of this Act.
